NOVEMBER 2023 NEWSLETTER

Don't Overlook Those Grey-Muzzled Cuties In Shelters!

Adopting older pets can be one of the most rewarding experiences for both you and your furry friend. Many people often overlook older pets in shelters, but they can make wonderful companions.

One of the benefits of adopting an older pet is that they are often calmer and more settled than younger animals. They have already gone through their energetic puppy or kitten phase, and are content with a more relaxed lifestyle. This makes them a great choice for those who don't have the time or energy to keep up with a young pet.

The icing on the cake? Older pets are often already trained and have loads of love to give, making them the perfect lifelong companion. By adopting an older pet, you're not only giving them a second chance at a happy life but also making a difference in their world.

Overall, adopting an older pet can be a wonderful choice for those looking to add a furry friend to their family. They may be a little grey around the whiskers, but they still have so much love to give. So, go ahead and add a little grey to your life!

SPONSOR OF THE MONTH

Say hello to Ann,

the stunning snow-white kitty with a heart of gold! Ann is part of a surprise litter born in a trap, and she's one of four majestic Queen cats. Ann's elegance is undeniable, and she takes great pride in her appearance, always looking paw-some and purring like a queen. Ann can struggle with change, so she's happiest when she's in her shelter home.

You can make a huge difference in Ann's life by virtually adopting her. With little chance of finding a forever home, sponsoring Ann is a win-win situation. You get a virtual fur baby to cherish, and we receive the financial assistance we need to care for her like the queen she is.

If you're interested in sponsoring Ann or another cat in our shelter, please don't hesitate to contact us. We'd be happy to answer any questions you may have and help you get started on your sponsorship journey.

Thank you for supporting our mission to provide a safe and loving home for all cats in need.
